Mission Statement

“The mission of The Stackpole-Hall Foundation is to first consider the needs of the people in Elk County, Pennsylvania with a goal of improving the fundamental quality of life. We will give priority to the educational, human service, and community development needs of the County.”

A Message from the Chairman of the Board

The year 2021 continued to be a year influenced by the COVID pandemic, as the Foundation continued to encourage electronic meeting options for the Trustees, and cancelled the 2021 retreat that normally brought the Trustees to St. Marys for tours of funded projects and presentations by representatives from the non-profit community.

On a far more positive note, 2021 saw the Foundation's investment portfolio reach an all time high of more than $35,000,000. From a noteworthy historical perspective, 2021 represented the 70th anniversary of the Foundation that was organized on November 9, 1951 by Lyle G. Hall, J. Hall Stackpole, and Harrison C. Stackpole. Joining Mr. Hall and Mr. Stackpole on the first Board of Trustees were Mr. Benn F. Goodrich and Mr. Edward L. Meyer. Today, seven family trustees currently serve on the Foundation's governing board joined by six community trustees. Under the guidance of the trustees, both past and present, and spanning four generations, the ensuing 70 years has witnessed a distribution of grants totaling more than $44,000,000 to organizations, most of which were located in Elk County Pennsylvania, or organizations not located in Elk County but serving Elk County people.

As we look to the future, we eagerly anticipate a return to more normal circumstances and the continuation of the Foundation's long-term proactive tradition.

William C. Conrad

Chairman of the Board

A Message from the Executive Director

It is my pleasure to present to you the Stackpole-Hall Foundation's 2021 Annual Report. This report will provide you with all the information you need to understand the Trustees' and family efforts to support the needs of our community.

In 2021, we awarded $1,148,897 to 53 different entities. Some noteworthy larger projects would be the $100,000 grant to Keystone Elk Country Alliance for their outdoor classroom project, $150,000 to the Jewish Family and Community Services to support the Afghan refugee resettlement needs, $76,000 to the Boys and Girls Club of St. Marys for their elevator project, and $73,000 to Citizens Against Physical Sexual and Emotional Abuse (CAPSEA) for their restructuring and succession planning efforts. Overall, I feel that 2021 was a tranquil year, and we witnessed our non-profit organizations recover and rebuild from the impact of the pandemic.

In 2021, we celebrated a notable milestone. As Dr. Conrad referenced in his chairman's letter, 2021 was the Stackpole-Hall Foundation's 70th anniversary. When I started this job in August 2018, I took the time to read through all the trustee meeting minutes since the Foundation's origin on November 9, 1951. It quickly became apparent that I was gifted a job that allowed me to be a part of something very epic and intrinsically rewarding. After 70 years, the Foundation's grant awards continue to impact a cross-section of non-profits, faith-based institutions, municipalities, and of course, our education system. Therefore, these awards helped create financial viability, new projects, and programs for non-profits to better our community. I look forward to serving the needs of the Foundation and to being a part of future milestones and celebrations.

To close, on behalf of the family and Trustees I encourage any non-profit representatives to come visit, call, or email me to keep us updated about their accomplishments and needs. I am committed to keeping the Trustees well informed to ensure that their grant funding is being utilized to target quality of life and in general your needs.

RESTRICTED FUNDS

The Restricted Grants category resulted from funds designated by the bequests of Lyle G. Hall, Sr. and J. Hall Stackpole. The distribution, adjusted for the proportionate share of expenses and excise taxes, is paid annually to those organizations specified by Mr. Hall and Mr. Stackpole. The following is a listing of the earmarked recipients and the grant amounts.

Lyle G. Hall Sr.

Lyle G. Hall, Sr. was born in St. Marys, PA, in 1886 but lived most of his life in Ridgway, PA. He attended Phillips Academy, Andover, Massachusetts, and graduated in 1910 from Yale University. Mr. Hall's community involvement was an abiding part of his personality. His dedication to the boy scout movement was probably one of his most fulfilling associations, in as much as he helped organize the Bucktail Council. Mr. Hall was known as a highly educated and refined gentleman with a great sense of humor. He enthusiastically supported every worth-while project or enterprise for the benefit of the people of Elk County. Mr. Hall passed away on April 28, 1958.

J. Hall Stackpole.

James Hall Stackpole was born in Ridgway, Pennsylvania, but lived most of his life in St. Marys. He graduated from Hotchkiss Preparatory School in 1920 and graduated from Yale University in 1924. After completing his formal education, he returned to Elk County taking permanent employment at the Stackpole Carbon Company and elected Chairman of the Board, a position he held until he passed away on August 21, 1964. When he passed, the local newspaper described him as one noted for his willingness to extend a helping hand and financial assistance to an untold number of people who appealed to him, and that his life was filled with acts of kindness that have endeared him to the hearts of many.

Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Trustees
The Stackpole-Hall Foundation

Report on the Audit of the Financial Statements

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the Stackpole-Hall Foundation (Foundation), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Foundation as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Foundation and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Foundation's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements, including omissions, are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Foundation's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Foundation's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Supplementary Information

Our audits were conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the financial statements as a whole. The supplementary information listed in the table of contents is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the financial statements or to the financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the supplementary information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the financial statements as a whole.
